

Activity 3.1

Type the correct form of the words in parentheses in each blank. Use the negative form if necessary. Use contractions.

Alice: I want to make a cake. (we / have got) Have we got any sugar?

Kate: No. We (not / have got) haven't got any sugar.

Alice: (we / have) Do we have any eggs?

Kate: No, we (not / have) don't have any eggs. But (we / have) we have chicken!

Alice: Chicken? Cake (not / have) doesn't have any chicken in it!

Kate: I know. But you can make chicken soup, not cake.

Alice: That's true. (we / have got) We've got vegetables. OK, I can make some chicken soup!

Grammar

Have / Have Got

Have = Have Got

To talk about possessions:

He has a house in town. Do you have a lot of money? He doesn't have a car. I've got a good camera. He's got two cars. Have they got a lot of money?

To talk about your friends or family:

Bob has a son. How many children do they have ? I' ve got two sisters. Has she got any friends at her new school?

To describe what somebody looks like:

I have dark hair and brown eyes.

I' ve got dark hair and brown eyes.

To talk about illnesses:

I have a cold. Do you have a fever?

I 've got a cold. Has the baby got a fever?

Have got = British English

Have = American English